政府应该怎么做才能提高公民的安全？

A:

1. 思路与结构: 从增加警力和设施两方面提出建议。
To improve citizens' safety, I think the government should do a few things. First, they can put more police officers on the streets, especially in busy places or at night. This can make people feel safer and stop bad things from happening. Also, they should install more lights in dark areas and more security cameras in public places.
