回答

Describe a difficult thing you did and succeeded.
描述一件你成功做到的困难的事情。

A:

1. 思路：开门见山，直接说出这件困难的事是什么——发表我的第一篇科研论文。

Of course, I'd love to talk about a challenging experience. The most difficult thing I've ever done was publishing my first research paper. As a university student, this was a huge challenge for me.

当然，我很乐意聊一个有挑战的经历。我做过最难的一件事是发表我的第一篇科研论文。作为一名大学生，这对当时的我来说是个巨大的挑战。

2. 思路：具体描述困难在哪里，比如需要阅读大量资料和用英文写作。

The topic was about time series, which is part of my major, computer science. The main difficulty was that I had to read tons of academic articles to understand the latest research. Also, writing the whole paper in English was really hard because I had to make sure my language was clear and professional. It took me almost half a year to finish everything.

这个论文的课题是关于时间序列的，这是我计算机专业的一部分。主要的困难在于我必须阅读海量的学术文章来了解最新的研究。而且，用英语写整篇论文真的很难，因为我必须确保我的语言清晰且专业。这花了我将近半年的时间才全部完成。

3. 思路：说明自己是如何获得帮助的，引出关键人物 Prof. Deng。

Luckily, I wasn't alone. I got a lot of help from my supervisor, Prof. Deng. He is a very smart and kind person. He gave me so many useful suggestions and checked my writing again and again. Whenever I felt like giving up, he would encourage me to keep going.

幸运的是，我不是一个人在战斗。我从我的导师邓教授那里得到了很多帮助。他是一个非常聪明和善良的人。他给了我非常多有用的建议，并且一遍又一遍地检查我写的东西。每当我想放弃的时候，他都会鼓励我继续前进。

4. 思路：描述成功后的感受，强调成就感和自信心的提升。

After all that hard work, my paper was finally accepted by an international journal. To be honest, I felt incredibly happy and proud of myself. It wasn't just about getting a good result; it was more about the feeling that I could overcome a big difficulty and achieve my goal. This experience really gave me the confidence to face future challenges.

在付出了所有努力之后，我的论文最终被一个国际期刊接收了。说实话，我感到无比的开心和自豪。这不仅仅是关于取得了一个好结果；它更多的是关于一种我能够克服巨大困难并实现自己目标的感觉。这段经历真的给了我面对未来挑战的信心。

1. 思路：指出“成功”的定义因人而异，这是一个很好的开放性观点。

Well, that's a big question. I believe success means different things to different people. For some people, it might be about making a lot of money or having a famous name.

*嗯，这是个大问题。我相信成功对不同的人来说意味着不同的事情。对一些人来说，这可能是指赚很多钱或出名。

2. 思路：给出自己对成功的定义，并与个人经历联系起来，让答案更具个性化。

But for me, success is more personal. It's about achieving the goals you set for yourself and feeling happy with what you've accomplished. For instance, when I published my research paper, I felt very successful. It wasn't about the money; it was about the sense of achievement. So, in my opinion, success is the happy feeling you get from trying your best.

但对我来说, 成功 是更个人化的。它是关于实现你为自己设定的 目标, 并对自己完成的事情感到满意。例如, 当我发表我的 科研论文 时, 我觉得非常成功。这与金钱无关, 而是关乎那种 成就感。所以, 在我看来, 成功 就是你从尽力而为中获得的快乐感觉。

How can we judge whether young people are successful nowadays?
我们如今该如何判断一个年轻人是否成功?

A:

1. 思路: 首先提出不应该只用单一标准 (如成绩) 来衡量。

I think we shouldn't just use one simple thing, like school grades, to judge if a young person is successful. Life is much more than that.

我认为我们不应该只用一件简单的事情, 比如学校成绩, 来判断一个年轻人是否 成功。生活远不止于此。

2. 思路: 提出多元化的衡量标准, 比如幸福感、人际关系和个人技能。

Instead, we should look at other things. For example, are they happy with their life? Do they have good friends and a supportive family? Also, are they good at something they love, like playing the piano, painting, or even playing computer games really well? A successful young person, in my view, is someone who is growing, learning, and enjoying their journey.

相反, 我们应该看看其他方面。比如说, 他们对自己的生活满意吗? 他们有好的朋友和支持他们的家人吗? 此外, 他们是否擅长自己热爱的事情, 比如弹钢琴、画画, 或者甚至把电脑游戏玩得很好? 一个 成功 的年轻人, 在我看来, 是那个在成长、在学习、并且享受这个过程的人。

*这是个有趣的观点。*我猜他们中的一些人可能是。如果一个人把所有时间和精力都花在工作上以求成功，他们可能就没有足够的时间给朋友和家人，这可能会让他们感到孤独。

2. 思路：提出反面观点，说明真正的成功包含良好的人际关系，并用自己的导师举例。

However, I don't think this is always true. I believe real success includes having good relationships. For example, my supervisor, Prof. Deng, is very successful in his field, but he is not lonely at all. He is very friendly and always spends quality time with his family and students. So, being successful and having a rich social life can happen at the same time.

然而，我不认为这总是对的。我相信真正的成功包括拥有良好的人际关系。例如，我的导师邓教授，在他的领域非常成功，但他一点也不孤独。他非常友好，并且总是和他的家人、学生共度美好时光。所以，成功和拥有丰富的社交生活是可以同时发生的。
